

QPMR Application for Suspension

QPMR accreditation can be suspended for 12 months only under the following circumstances:

- if you are leaving the industry for a period of time to work in another industry or overseas;
- if you are away from work for an extended period due to ill health; or
- if you are taking maternity, paternity or carers leave.

If you are taking leave due to other circumstances please contact AMSRS to discuss your request.

Please complete this form stating your reasons for requesting a suspension and providing an approximate date for your return to the accreditation program. When on suspension QPMR members are temporarily removed from the scheme and unable to use the nomenclature, claim QPMR accreditation or accumulate points. Please also attach a copy of your Professional Development Diary documenting your Professional Development activity up until the time of your suspension request. Applications for suspension are referred to the QPMR assessors.
